LIXIL Corporate Governance General Policy

Chapter I General Provisions

Article 1 Purpose

- 1.1 This general policy (the "General Policy") set forth the fundamental philosophy with respect to corporate governance of LIXIL Corporation (the "Company") and its Group.
- 1.2 In order to realize the corporate management philosophy set forth in Article 3 of the General Policy, the Company shall strive at all times to implement the best possible corporate governance system, one which enables it to achieve maximum sustainable improvement in corporate value. The corporate governance system provided in the General Policy constitutes the Company's commitment to our shareholders and other stakeholders and also functions as the standard to which the Company holds itself.
- 1.3 The Company shall post the latest version of the General Policy on its website.

Article 2 Definitions

The following terms used in this General Policy shall have the meanings assigned to them in the following paragraphs.

- (1) "Group" means a corporate group which is composed of the Company and its Affiliates.
- (2) "Affiliates" means the Company's Subsidiaries and Affiliated Companies.
- (3) "Subsidiaries" means the subsidiaries company defined in Article 3, paragraph (1) of the Ordinance for Enforcement of the Companies Act.
- (4) "Affiliated Companies" means the affiliated company defined in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (xviii) of the Rules of Corporate Accounting.

Article 3 Corporate Management Philosophy

The fundamental philosophy underlying the Company's corporate governance is the implementation of a corporate governance system embodying the Company's Management Philosophy. The following is the Company's Management Philosophy.

- (1) LIXIL Purpose
Make better homes a reality for everyone, everywhere

- (2) LIXIL Behaviors
 - Do the Right thing
 - Work with Respect
 - Experiment and Learn

Article 4 Basic Corporate Governance Framework

Under the Company, a holding company with its business, the Group aims to optimize the whole by maintaining cooperation between each Affiliate. The Group shall adopt the following fundamental framework and undertake initiatives to strengthen and enhance corporate governance in order to maintain the Group's standing as a corporate group that inspires confidence through the creation and provision of attractive value to our stakeholders.

- (1) Company with a nominating committee, etc.

The Company has adopted the governance format of a "company with a nominating committee, etc." with the aim of clearly separating its executive and supervisory functions, enabling executive officers to make swift and decisive business decisions and ensuring management transparency.
- (2) Enhancement of functions by utilizing discretionary organs

In addition to the organs legally required for a company with a nominating committee, etc., the Company shall have Board of Executive Officers, and other discretionary organs.
- (3) Implementation of a uniform corporate governance system across the entire Group

By setting forth the LIXIL Behaviors, the LIXIL Code of Conduct, and group-wide financial and accounting management policies, having the entire Group comply therewith, and carrying out integrated education and training for directors, executive officers and employees as well as uniform implementation of a compliance system, the Company shall strive to cause the core elements of its corporate governance permeate the entire globalized corporate group, enabling a full understanding and realization of the General Policy.

Chapter II Relationship with Shareholders

Article 5 General Meeting of Shareholders

- 5.1 In order to ensure that shareholders have sufficient time to consider proposals put to General Meetings of Shareholders, the Company shall issue the convocation notice for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders as early as possible and disclose the convocation notice and English translation thereof on the Company's website and TDnet before issuing the notice.

- 5.2 In order to enhance the usefulness of the General Meeting of Shareholders and facilitate the exercise of voting rights, the Company shall adopt a system for the exercise of voting rights via the Internet, and utilize the platform for the electronic exercise of voting rights by institutional investors.
- 5.3 In addition to information that is required under rules for timely disclosure of corporate information by issuers of listed securities (timely disclosure rules), the Company shall also proactively and impartially disclose information necessary to enable shareholders to exercise their voting rights appropriately at General Meetings of Shareholders. The Company shall also give consideration to how it communicates information in order to make it easier for shareholders to understand, including the use of colors in convocation notice reference documents and the use of visual representations, such as graphs, of the content of business reports.
- 5.4 With respect to the participation, attendance, and the exercise of voting rights, etc. at General Meetings of Shareholders by beneficial shareholders such as institutional investors whose shares are held in the name of a trust bank, etc., the Company, through the responsible department, shall discuss and examine the matter with the trust bank, etc. on a case-by-case basis in accordance with a policy to not obstruct (in terms of actual substance) the exercise of shareholder voting rights.
- 5.5 In order to allow as many shareholders as possible to participate in General Meetings of Shareholders, in principle the Company shall set a date for the General Meeting of Shareholders that is at least five days prior to the date on which many other companies are expected to hold their general meetings of shareholders.

Article 6 Measures After General Meetings of Shareholders

- 6.1 With respect to each proposal, the Company, through the responsible department, shall analyze the factors for approval or disapproval of resolution matters at General Meetings of Shareholders, and consider how the Company should respond.
- 6.2 In particular, when it is recognized that a considerable number of votes were submitted disapproving of a proposal made by the Company, its Board of Directors shall analyze the reason for disapproval and the cause of the numerous disapproving votes, and consider holding dialogue with shareholders, and other responses.
- 6.3 The responsible department shall examine whether it is necessary to respond to questions and opinions voiced by shareholders at General Meetings of Shareholders.

Article 7 Basic Policy Regarding Capital Structure

- 7.1 The Company's basic policy is to avoid as far as possible any measure related to capital structure that prejudices the interests of existing shareholders, and the Company shall endeavor to implement a system to ensure that any capital-related measure that risks prejudicing the interests of existing shareholders is thoroughly discussed by the Board of Directors.

- 7.2 When implementing a capital-related measure that poses the risk of prejudicing the interests of shareholders, the CEO (Representative Executive Officer) and CFO (Chief Financial Officer) shall endeavor to personally provide explanations to shareholders.

Article 8 Dividend Policy

- 8.1 Based on the fundamental principle of preservation of sound financial standing, the Company has as its policies: to preserve a 30% or higher dividend payout ratio on a consolidated basis; and to flexibly acquire treasury stock.
- 8.2 The Company shall use retained earnings for strategic investments for purposes such as the expansion of business activities.
- 8.3 The Company's basic policy is to pay dividends from surplus twice per year (an interim dividend and an annual dividend).

Article 9 Cross Shareholdings

- 9.1 The Group holds cross shareholdings in cases where it is recognized to be necessary to facilitate sales and revenue generation, or necessary as part of an alliance with an outside company required for the Company's business activities.
- 9.2 Each year, the responsible departments shall comprehensively evaluate cross-held shares held by the Group individually from a quantitative and qualitative perspective in respect of whether the purpose of holding is appropriate, whether the capital cost matches the benefits and risks of the holding, whether there is any future risk as a result of sale, etc., and shall report the content to the Company's Board of Directors and the Board of Directors shall verify the content. Also, in conjunction with changes in the environment surrounding the Group, the Group shall undertake a reconsideration of the goal of such holding as needed. As a result of these verifications, in the case where it is determined that the necessity of holding is no longer indicated, the Group shall work to reduce the cross-held shares by undertaking a prompt disposition, etc.
- 9.3 The Group is undertaking exercise of voting rights for holdings of cross-held shares and in undertaking the exercise of voting rights, upon a full consideration from the point of view of whether it contributes to improving value over the mid to long-term of the Group and the invested company, etc., and with respect to resolutions that may violate the goal for such holding of the Group and resolutions that may harm shareholder value, the Group shall carefully determine whether to support or oppose after having a discussion with the entity as needed and then exercise the voting rights.

Article 10 Anti-Takeover Measures

- 10.1 Based on the Company's understanding that having shareholders hold the Company's shares on a medium- to long-term basis by winning the support of our shareholders is the best defense against hostile takeovers, the Company will not at this time introduce any anti-takeover measures.
- 10.2 If a tender offer is made for the Company's shares, its Board of Directors shall give such tender offer sufficient deliberation, appropriately disclose to shareholders its position, and ensure that proper procedures are carried out. In such event, the Company's policy is to avoid measures that unjustly prevent shareholders from selling or transferring their shares in response to a tender offer.

Article 11 Related-Party Transactions

The Group shall comply with the law and rules that shall be set forth in a separate document regarding transactions with parties such as directors, executive officers and major shareholders.

Article 12 Communication with Shareholders

- 12.1 The IR Office shall play the central role in managing the overall dialogue with shareholders, and the Company's basic policy shall be to hold meetings at the request of any shareholder or investor where possible. In such cases, the Company shall take care to ensure impartiality, irrespective of whether the shareholder or investor is in Japan or located abroad.
- 12.2 In addition to nominating an Officer in charge of IR with responsibility for managing the dialogue with shareholders, the Company shall endeavor to garner the understanding of shareholders with respect to the Group's management strategies and management plans by undertaking meetings between shareholders, etc., and the CEO, CFO, and other appropriate persons, depending on the importance, etc., of the purpose and content of the meetings. Also, when there is a request from a shareholder for an interview with an outside director and a particular reason is found upon consideration of the fair disclosure rule, etc., by the Officer in charge of IR, effort will be made to have the independent outside director respond with the participation of the Officer in charge of IR and other necessary persons.
- 12.3 As part of its disclosure of information to facilitate constructive dialogue, the Company shall aim to promote understanding on the part of shareholders by holding explanatory meetings with respect to quarterly financial results as well as holding explanatory meetings with respect to other matters as necessary.

12.4 The Board of Directors and Board of Executive Officers shall be given regular feedback on opinions and concerns that the Company has learned of through its dialogue with shareholders, etc. and utilize such feedback to drive improvement of the Company's corporate value.

12.5 The Company shall exercise caution with respect to the management of inside information, using measures such as having multiple persons in charge for IR attend meetings, and providing a quiet period before the announcement of quarterly results.

12.6 The Company shall endeavor to have an understanding of its shareholder structure, and shall carry out surveys to identify beneficial shareholders at least once per year.

Chapter III Relationship with Stakeholders Other than Shareholders

Article 13 Collaboration with Stakeholders

In order to fulfill our social responsibilities as a global living and housing solutions company, the Group will implement dialogues with stakeholders, such as consumers, community members, NPOs and NGOs, etc. to accurately understand and reflect the demands of society and to be able to conduct business activities based on a socially-centered perspective rather than a company-centered one, and, based on that, strive for appropriate synergies.

Article 14 Implementation of and Compliance with a Code of Conduct

14.1. The Company will set out clearly in the LIXIL Code of Conduct the compliance policies that must be followed by all directors, officers and employees of the Group, translate the content into multiple languages, print it in a booklet and distribute it to all directors, officers and employees, and together with that implement regular training and acknowledgment of compliance with the code of conduct, and follow up on it diligently.

14.2. The Company's Board of Directors will regularly supervise the actual conditions and efficacy of the LIXIL Code of Conduct through the report of status of execution of operations, etc., of the executive officer in charge.

Article 15 CR Policy

The Company's Board of Directors proactively works to understand important issues regarding sustainability, such as environmental, social and governance problems, and to consider countermeasures.

The company's specific CR policies and efforts are disclosed via the company website as necessary and are formulated from the perspective of enabling a flexible response to changing social conditions.

Article 16 Ensuring Diversity, etc.

The Group realizes that establishing a corporate culture that generates innovation and energy is essential in order to strengthen people and organization which are a source of competitive strength and will practice handling in response to actual conditions at each juncture based on the LIXIL Diversity and Inclusion Declaration in order to actively promote diversity.

LIXIL Diversity and Inclusion Declaration

“We leverage our differences to create new energy and engagement generated by open and honest dialogue across our organization. These efforts will enable our employees to build entrepreneurial mindset that will drive growth and sustainable innovation.”

Article 17 Concern Raising (Whistleblowing)

17.1 The Company will prepare a system for concern raising (whistleblowing system), establish a “GLOBAL POLICY ON CONCERN-RAISING” applicable to the whole Group that clearly sets out a confidentiality obligation and protection from retribution, and operate it in accordance with the Policy, other related rules and related laws and regulations, etc.

17.2 To ensure the effectiveness of the system for concern raising (whistleblowing system), the Company shall implement the following measures, and the Audit Committee shall monitor it by receiving regular reports on the operation status thereof from the responsible departments.

- (1) a system for appropriately receiving concern raising (establishment of reception channels in an outside specialist or law firm, or other place independent of management, capable of handling multiple languages, and publish the reception channels);
- (2) a system to objectively evaluate the concerning facts that are reported (assure neutrality of the investigation, obtain cooperation from employees, etc., distribution and education of persons in charge of investigation);
- (3) a system to provide feedback to the person making the concern raising and other stakeholders regarding the concern submitted through the concern raising system and the handling;
- (4) a system to follow up on correction measures;
- (5) a system to make public an outline of operational performance of the system for concern raising (whistleblowing system) that takes into consideration confidentiality and privacy.

Article 18 Exercise Functions as Asset Owner of Corporate Pension Fund

- 18.1 In order to properly perform pension fund payments to beneficiaries in the future, the corporate pension fund of the Group will undertake operations with the goal of ensuring long-term overall profits determined to be necessary while recognizing various risks, and draw up strategic asset allocation from the mid to long-term point of view based on the opinions of various investor operators.
- 18.2 The corporate pension fund of the Group will periodically monitor the status of management of the pension fund assets and reconsider the strategic asset allocation as needed. Also, for each investor operator, it will implement a comprehensive evaluation based not only on quantitative criteria but also qualitative criteria of investment policy, investment process, compliance, etc.
- 18.3 In order for the Group's corporate pension fund to be able to raise the expert level of operations and maximize the function as an asset owner, the Group will from the personnel side, appoint a person with expert ability and knowledge in pension fund management as the investment executive officer in charge. Also, on the operating side, an asset management committee constituted by personnel affairs, financial, etc., experts and a conference of delegates of which a majority are beneficiaries will implement continuous monitoring of the status of operations, and set up a system to certify and manage in each case that there are no conflicts of interest between the Group and the beneficiaries of the Group's corporate pension fund.
