Donation of JPY 10 Million for Thailand Flood Victims

We would like to express our heartfelt sympathy to people who suffered from the flood damage in Thailand, and sincerely pray for early recovery and reconstruction.

LIXIL Corporation, Japan's leader in housing and building materials headquartered in Tokyo, has decided to donate 10 million yen to Royal Thai Embassy Tokyo on December 28, with the aim of supporting the areas and people affected by the floods in Thailand.

We are also pleased to inform you that LIXIL Labor Union donated 500 thousand yen on November 28, 2011.
