LIXIL Group takes a purpose-driven approach by aligning its Corporate Responsibility (CR) with its business strategy through three strategic pillars that were established from among the most urgent issues to the regions where it operates. The indices evaluated LIXIL Group’s CR initiatives based on its economic, environmental and social performance, in which LIXIL Group has improved its overall score from its previous years. This includes receiving higher marks in fields such as Product Stewardship, Social Reporting, Labor Practice Indicators, Human Capital Development, and Occupational Health & Safety.

“LIXIL Group’s greater purpose is to ‘make better homes a reality for everyone, everywhere,’ and contributing to society is at the core of what we do. Being recognized for our CR strategy is a source of pride for all our employees and is the force that drives us to become a sustainable business.
